

headed, President's Memorandum No. 13, and deals with the assignment for study and consideration purposes of provisions of the present Constitution to the various committees; attached as the last half dozen pages is the same material that is in the first four pages but arranged by committees, so that you can see for each committee what portions of the present Constitution have been assigned for study.

Let me again repeat what I said on Friday, that the effort has been made to assign provisions of the existing Constitution to committees for study in such a manner that only one committee has the primary responsibility. Other committees have had their attention called to provisions, in some instances, even though they are not primarily assigned that provision. Obviously, we would hope that you are familiar with all of the present Constitution and the purpose of the memorandum is merely an effort to fix the responsibility for detailed consideration of particular provisions.

Are there any announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Boyer?

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, your Committee on General Provisions has been meeting earlier today. We have had some testimony today from Dr. Carnahan, President of the School Superintendents. We will meet again at 5:00 P.M., immediately after the session, to hear from Mr. Richard Batterton, who is head of the State Division of Juvenile Services. Hopefully, we will be able to get to dinner sometime, but at 7:00 P.M. we will be hearing from Dr. Glenn Robinson, Mrs. Jean Flanagan, and then Dr. Richard Weigle, President of St. John's College, to talk to us at 9:00 P.M. this evening. We will meet again tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M. as usual, and at that time, we will hear from Dr. Zimmerman. I mention these names so that anybody who might be particularly interested in any phase of this thorny thicket can be our guest. Feel free to attend. We will meet again tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Mudd?

DELEGATE MUDD: Mr. President, the Committee on the Judicial Branch will meet immediately following this session, and resume hearings again tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M. with Delegate Case as our first witness tomorrow morning. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there further announcements? Delegate Moser?

DELEGATE MOSER: Mr. President, the Committee on Local Government will next meet tomorrow morning at 9:15 A.M. when we will have as witnesses the Mayors of Rockville and Takoma Park and also Greenbelt. We also are hearing from the Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Prince George's County, and at 11:15 A.M. Mr. William Coleman of the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations will be a witness.

The general subject continues to be state and local unit interrelationships.

The schedule of this committee, that is, the hearings scheduled for the rest of the week, is available in the Public Information Office and should also, I think, be available in your various committee rooms.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will meet immediately following the session to resume its consideration of some of the more formal matters with which we are dealing. Tomorrow morning we are meeting at 10:00 A.M., and we will hear from Mr. Luetkemeyer, Treasurer of Maryland, and will also hear from Mr. William Coleman tomorrow.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Gallagher?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen: the Committee on the Legislative Branch had the honor to hear from the Honorable Marvin Mandel, Speaker of the House this afternoon, who graces the gallery of this chamber this afternoon. I am pleased to report to the full Convention that the Committee had its election for vice-chairman this afternoon, and the Honorable George W. Della, former President of the Maryland Senate was elected Vice-Chairman of our Committee.

At 9:30 A.M. tomorrow morning our Committee will hear from Dr. Paul Cooper; at the afternoon session, we will hear from State Senator Harry Hughes, the Majority Leader. We will also meet after this session approximately five minutes after the recess. I have a request to make of the President, and that is, Mr. President, that every time there is a meeting of the Rules Committee, my committee gets decimated of its most vocal and eloquent members. Consequently when you are making up the Committee on Public Information, please leave us a few souls who will keep the fight going. Thank you, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Koss?
